Beautifully illustrated book, nice and interesting. A book to realize how much goes into the work of a couture dress and how many people are really involved which makes it a very nice book. Worth having for great reference.

Fun and informative--lots of "behind the scenes" pics and history to go with each designer. The up close and personal encounters with each one gave a unique personal touch to what has gone before with most fashion books. This book is well worth the money, and one will find great enjoyment every time the cover is open.

For my education it was just the information and pictures I wanted!
