Louis Vuitton Icons

Synopsis

Louis Vuitton's classic designs are an inextricable part of chic travel history. From trunks to bags to wine holders, the styles featured in this celebratory volume have traveled across time and fashion, becoming classics that never look old. With the genius of Marc Jacobs, these icons have entered new domains where art and fashion are directly linked. Published on the occasion of the Icons exhibition organized by Louis Vuitton this collector's volume, the foundations of a premiere luxury brand are celebrated showcases works by Andree Putman, the architects Zaha Hadid and Shigeru Ban, the video artist Tim White-Sobieski, the director-scenographer Robert Wilson, and the artists James Turrell, Sylvie Fleury, Bruno Peinado, and Ugo Rondinone.

Customer Reviews

This book is a very welcome addition to the others I have in the series. I knew what to expect as this series of books by Assouline can not be faulted. It is not an in depth view of the LV iconic stable but an enjoyable read even so. Great little coffee table book. Would highly recommend.

I was a disappointed with this book. There are some nice pictures but the stories are few and far between. Maybe, I can cut the book apart and frame some of the photos and hang them on my wall....

i was expecting a coffee table size book, but this is the size of a typical reading book. i do like the contents, however, i am returning for a larger size.

Great small coffee table book for collectors. It's more of a illustrated picture book than a actual read. Nonetheless still a great buy!
