Customer Reviews

I was looking for an inexpensive music manuscript for my 7-yr.-ol granddaughter, who had requested for her 8th birthday. She is a first year piano student, and she likes to develop melodies of her own. I suggested getting her a music manuscript book to enter her "spontaneous" compositions. I found this one on for a great price. She was very pleased to receive it!

This is very very small. Theres only maybe 20 pages total each with only 5 bars. Unless youre writing only a line or two worth of music at a time, its definitely pretty useless.

The image looks like it's 8.5 x 11 with the manuscript paper behind the cover....but as the specs say, it's 8.5 x 8.5. I need to read stuff more carefully. There are only 16 pages, double sided to give you 32. VERY overpriced and I would not buy this again.

I bought this as a gift but its a nice little book. A little thin but a quick glance at the specs/page count would've told me that. I think he'll love it but on the off chance he totally hates it I'll update the review.

i thought there were 32 full pages, but it counts front and back as two pages so there is really only 16 full pages which i dont like, i will likely have to buy more to last me the semester

Nothing special, I know you can download and print it for free, but it's nice to have a bound book to carry around instead of a three ring binder.

I love this staff paper because it lies flat and the staves are large and legible. I wish there was a book like this with more sheets in it.

Exactly as described. Perfect for an adult who is a songwriter and maybe prefers to write lead sheets instead of a classical composer needing a large sheet of notation paper. Also great for scribbling down musical ideas. Highly recommended.
