Customer Reviews

I play violin and purchased this book even though it only advertises piano and vocal. I thought I would just play the melody and try to play the violin parts by ear. I was delighted to see that it also has clearly marked the violin solos from the songs. I would highly recommend this book to any violinists/fiddlers who enjoy Celtic Woman and especially Mairead Nesbitt.

As someone who loves owning the sheet music to my favorite songs, I have bought a lot of different songbooks. Most have just been okay - altered melody lines, altered piano lines to be easy for the beginner. This songbook goes way beyond the beginner - not necessarily in difficulty, but because it gives you a sound closer to the original music than I've ever seen in a songbook. I am so glad I bought this!

I thought I was going to be the first to write a review as I just received the Music Book Today. As my Review Title states - less than $1 per song. I have been waiting for this Song Book for a long time. Some of the non-english songs show the english words although you may have to add notes if you sing the song in english. If you like Celtic Woman and you play the piano/violin/sing - you will want this book. OK! That's it - I am off to my keyboard.

This songbook brings the music of Celtic Woman to life in your home. This book is mainly for an intermediate pianist. I've only used it for piano so far; I haven't checked out the guitar chords yet. The score is beautifully rendered for piano. I loved nearly all of the music. Sometimes there are low notes in rapid progression to supplement timpani, and this is kind of awkward in several songs, I think. However, a really lovely songbook. Great if you like to sing as you're playing!

I am a fan of Celtic Woman, and I was happy that this songbook contains some of their most beautiful songs. Only a couple of the arrangements are for accompaniment to a vocal performer; most of them stand alone as piano solos. Particularly haunting are "The Prayer" and "The Sky, the Dawn, and the Sun". The other selections are: Ave Maria (Bach/Gounod) Beyond the Sea The Butterfly Caledonia Carrickfergus Danny Boy Dulaman Isle of Inisfree Lascia Ch'io Pianga Mo Ghile Mear Nella Fantasia One World Over the Rainbow The Blessing Scarborough Fair Send Me a Song She Moved Through the Fair Shenandoah Siuilil A Run The Soft Goodbye Someday (Esmeralda's Song) Vivaldi's Rain The Voice You Raise Me Up this book included all of the top Celtic Woman songs (with violin parts which I was mainly interested in). It is complete with background/photos and large/easy to see. I would recommend to anyone putting together songs for a group or just for fun.

If you are purchasing this book to play piano solos, don't! In most of the songs, the piano doesn't play the melody...it merely accompanies the vocals (or I guess violin). What a disappointment!

I love this book. Though its missing some of my favorites, it has most of the best songs Celtic Woman sings (and plays!). Great for everyone whose been singing along to their CDs and DVDs.I just wish that... perhaps, they could have added a pronunciation key for some of the songs in Gaelic?
