Customer Reviews

Because I live under a rock most of the time, I'm embarrassed to admit that I didn't know who Camilla d'Errico was when I requested a copy of her coloring book to review. I just knew that I loved that wide-eyed girl with her tangled avant-garde hairstyle and Camilla's sketchy, organic, inky drawing lines. Well after reading the press release tucked inside the book and some information online, it seems that Camilla d'Errico is quite the rockstar. She's one of the most popular artists in the Pop Surrealism art movement. Camilla says that "Pop Surrealism is about bending the rules of physics to create a whimsical, playful image" and that in her imagery "gravity doesn't exist, animals blend into fruit, and time and space are not a concern" (Pop Painting, Watson-Guptyll, January 2016). Camilla is most known for her oil paintings of beautiful, delicate yet gritty, wide-eyed girls. She is equally well known for her black and white illustrations and her Tanpopo and Helmetgirls characters. Her art is beautifully bizarre, ethereal, and otherworldly. And now, in Pop Manga Coloring Book: A Surreal Journey Through a Cute, Curious, Bizarre, and Beautiful World, Camilla presents her art, rendered in black and white, for us to color. The production team did an excellent job with the book design for POP MANGA. The book is sized 10 x 10 inches, has 80 pages, and comes with a removable dust jacket. The front of the dust jacket and front inside flap are embossed with shiny colored polka dots and text. There is a beautiful illustration on the back of the dust jacket that wraps around to the inside back flap.
